Meet Your Director

Kali Wysoczanski started her dance education in New Jersey where she was raised. At a very young age she expanded her studies in New York City at Alvin Ailey, Joffrey Ballet and Joffrey Jazz Contemporary. She furthered her education under the instruction of Finis Jhung, John Magnus, Francesca Corkle, Kat Wildish and many more. After graduating high school, Kali was accepted into a modern dance company called MAD about Dance where she was a soloist and assistant to the director. She has filmed a pilot for MTV called Dance or Drop and has performed multiple times on Bronx Live Television. Ms Wysoczanski has danced for many companies around New York City including Urban Dance Collective, Balasole Dance, and Undertoe Dance Fusion. Aside from performing and teaching she is also a seasoned judge for Starbound National Dance Competition and Throw Down Dance Challenge. Kali has taught at the College of Mount Saint Vincent and Bronx Community College under the guidance of Professor Michiyo Tanaka. Miss Kali currently teaches and choreographs aspiring dancers all around New Jersey where she has won multiple awards for her creative and innovative choreography! Last year Miss Kali married Mr. Michael and they are expecting their first baby due August 14th!

Meet Our Head Teacher

Miss Taylor, from Monroe Township NJ, has been dancing since the age of two and was given a spot on a competitive team at the age of seven. She has training in numerous styles including, but not limited to tap, hip hop, contemporary, jazz and ballet.

Taylor has had the opportunity to grow as a dancer through her experiences with teachers and choreographers such as Stacy Paydo, Wanda Weir, Toya Ambrose, Katie Lane, and Karl Mundt. She looks forward to continuing to learn from well known professionals in the dance industry.

Taylor is a full time student at The College of New Jersey where she is an Education major. She has always had a passion for teaching young children, which only grew when she was given the opportunity to become a teaching assistant at a young age. At TCNJ Taylor had the opportunity to be a part of the competitive Dance Team, where she was coached by Jennifer Whitford, UDA instructor and choreographer. She had the privilege of dancing in the team's competition routines at regional and national competitions, including UDA's College Dance Team Championship. In addition she performed jazz, pom and hip hop routines at TCNJ sporting events.

Miss Taylor was part of the original Diamond K Dance Company in 2018. She graduated as Diamond K's first Dancer of the Year and now is so excited to be teaching and choreographing! Miss Taylor has won multiple awards for choreography and entertainment. Her award winning dance, "Bring Em Out" will be performed today!

Meet Miss Lily

Miss Lily has been dancing her whole life and not only has a love for performing, but also loves to pass along her knowledge of dance to others.

Lily finished high school last year dancing as a member of Diamond K's award winning competition dance company. She started to assist the director at the studio and now has begun teaching ballet to our Mini team! Miss Lily also has a passion for photography and even photographs current Diamond K dancers in her spare time.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a black leotard, is captured in a dynamic split leap on a sandy beach. She is barefoot, with her arms reaching high and her legs spread wide. The background features a calm ocean with gentle waves under a clear, deep blue sky. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of sunset or sunrise, creating long shadows on the sand. The overall mood is one of grace, strength, and achievement.
